

Modern Slavery Statement

For the year ending 31 December 2025

Agrovista UK Limited

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 requires any commercial organisation carrying on business in the UK with a total annual global turnover of £36m or more to produce a slavery and human trafficking statement for each financial year of the organisation.

Modern Slavery is a term which encompasses slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour. Human trafficking is defined as arranging or facilitating the travel of another person with a view to that person being exploited.

This statement sets out the steps that Agrovista UK Limited has taken during the financial year 1st January 2025 – 31st December 2025 to ensure that modern slavery and human trafficking is not occurring in our organisation or in our supply chains.

Organisational structure and activities

Agrovista UK Limited are a supplier of agronomy advice, seed, crop protection products and precision farming services within the agricultural industry. The Company (Agrovista UK Limited) supply the arable, amenity, fruit and horticulture sectors. The demand for our services is seasonal; extremely high in spring, low in summer, high in autumn and extremely low in winter. Much of our work is carried out in United Kingdom, although some minimal services (approximately 1%) are offered across Europe.

Agrovista employs over 400 people and has a head office located in Nottingham with 18 distribution outlets across the UK.

Supply chain structure and activities

The agricultural supply chain is complex and global in nature, spreading across over 15 countries.

Products include:

- Agrichemicals
- Nutrition, fertilisers, growing media
- Biological controls
- Seed and seed treatments
- Dressing and top marking
- Ground cover, fleece and polyethene
- Irrigation systems, weather stations and mapping

There can be several levels of supplier between the end products provided by manufacturers and the raw materials that make up the development of active ingredients and elements which are used in the manufacturing process.

Assessing Risk and Due Diligence

The Company encourages transparency in its supply chains and has introduced a series of measures to mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking within its supply chains.

The Company has not, to its knowledge, conducted any business with another organisation which has been found to have involved itself with modern slavery.

In accordance with section 54(4) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, the Company continues to ensure that modern slavery is not taking place through the following processes;

- Request new suppliers confirm their compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Monitor new supplier authorisation process to identify any suppliers who are unwilling to confirm their compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Reserved the right to terminate supplier contracts in the event that a supplier is involved in Modern Slavery.
- Introduced monitoring of our *risk-based approach to review potentially higher risk suppliers in addition to requesting compliance with our Code of Conduct.
- Ensure that all employees involved in the procurement process undergo training.

*Highest risk of exposure are suppliers based in countries, or who use a second/third tier supplier who are based in countries, where protection of against breaches of human rights may be limited.

Policies

The Company has in place the following policies which reflect our commitment to ethical operating processes;

- Anti-corruption & Bribery Policy
- Dignity at Work Policy
- Equal Opportunities Policy
- Supplier Code of Conduct
- Whistleblowing Policy

In addition, the Company's approach and ethics are described internally as The Agrovista Way, which includes being the preferred partner for suppliers based on our values which include; honesty, integrity, innovation, respect and support. The company has established a Governance and Compliance Committee (GCC), chaired by the Finance Director and also attended by the Head of HR, IT Director and National Supply Manager. At the GCC, compliance with policy is a standing agenda item.

Key Performance Indicators

The Company measures its effectiveness in ensuring modern slavery is not taking place in the following ways;

- Commitment to our Supplier Code of Conduct by all suppliers
- Monitoring of any suppliers unable/unwilling to commit to our Supplier Code of Conduct
- Additional information obtained from suppliers who have been identified as high risk
- Review of Modern Slavery processes at the Governance & Compliance Committee
